

Branislav Popovic

On behalf of Panacomp Wonderland Travel Serbia, Serbian incoming tour operator specialized in cultural and heritage tours to Serbia and the Balkans, it is our pleasure to introduce professional tourist guide Branislav Popović, his knowledge, dedication, qualifications and experience in guiding heritage tours to Serbia and the Balkans.

Branislav's professional background in hospitality and tourism started over 30 years ago in Belgrade, Serbia, Yugoslavia. Since a decade ago, after years of successful guiding of many tourist destinations in Europe and the World, Branislav turned his professional attention to the Balkans in order to support this relatively "unknown and hidden corner of the world", although well-known till the recent past as a significant part of Yugoslavia. Branislav's knowledge of the exceptionally rich history, culture and the current situation of the Balkan destinations is continuously extending his experience for both personal and professional reasons. Twenty years ago Branislav has been the founder of the Tourist Guides Association of Serbia and its Board Chairman for three mandates, contributing in the best possible way to the status and role of fellow tourism professionals within the tourism industry of the country and the wider region.

By speaking fluently English, Italian, Russian and Romanian languages, having worked in the diplomatic service for years, as well as being an international relations expert and writer of articles and essays on international politics and tourism, Branislav is at your service as a formidable host, guide and driver to help you meet wonderful sites and people all around the Balkans, so that you can easily discover the charming landmarks, flavors and spirit of the region and take outstanding memories with you.

