

SERBIA WONDERLAND – THAT'S THE LIFE – EXPERIENCE EMOTIONS

Milan Prosen - History and Culture Tourist Guide

Milan Prosen is one of the legendary tour guides of Serbia, whose biography often inspired press reviews.

Born into a family that for three generations and over 60 years represents a recognizable name in the tourist world of Serbia and the former Yugoslavia, Milan dedicated himself to tourism after the completion of the Art history studies. Leading groups through numerous destinations of Europe, Milan also explored the most hidden corners of Serbia and the Balkans, which he presented to tourists, tour operators and travel journalists of many countries.

Milan Prosen adorned with charm and a smile, is a tour guide who does not always reveal that he has also a PhD in Art History and is a professor on the University of Arts.

His subtle balanced knowledge and skills oriented towards the interest of each person while guiding, is always followed by a hidden surprise for his guests: Milan is also opera singer and actor, who worked 16 years in the Opera of the National Theatre in Belgrade, and therefore specifically called „the singing guide“. Helping you to explore the historical, artistic, culinary trasury, culture, music, nature and lifestyle of Balkans, with all its diversity Milan will make your visit coloured with the warmth of its hospitality.
