Radivoj Novakov – Historian and Culture-Tourist Guide

Welcome to Serbia and the Balkans!!!

IN MEMORIAM

This is how we will remember our dear friend and colleague Radivoj Novakov : We are pleased to introduce Mr Radivoj Novakov, a very enriching tour guide, who graduated History at the Department of History at the Faculty of Philosophy in Novi Sad, and since 2000 became popular in guiding clients from all over the world keen to learn special secrets and understand facts and legends that marked the rich heritage of Serbia and the Balkans. Radivoj is fluent in English and shows a lot of patience with clients of various profiles, especially cruisers who travel along the Danube River, whom he amazingly presents the best sites and places clients would never imagine exist. Besides successful guiding tours to Serbia, Radivoj also guides tours to Montenegro, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Hungary, Austria, Check Republic, Slovakia and Greece. When not hired for cruising excursions and tours in Serbia and the Balkans, which became his favorite business in the recent years, Radivoj spends his time with his wonderful family, searching for new knowledge and experience, as his wife Tanya is also a professional tourist guide, specialized in Greece and fluent in Greek language. Clients are inspired with interesting details of history wonderfully presented by him, and especially with Radivoj's functional knowledge, which makes them truly understand the unique blend of the Balkan heritages. Your next trip with Radivoj will surely exceeds these words on Radivoj's professional career, who is always shy for self-promotion, inviting clients to judge themselves on experiences they get when traveling together.....
